NEW MANAGEMENT AT DELMAR GARDEN.

Turner T. Lewis Becomes President, Succeeding J. C. Jannopoulo, Who Remains Manager.

GEORGE W. BAUMHOFF RETIRES.

Louis E. Dening Takes His Place as Secretary-Treasurer-New Amusement Features Proposed.

The Delmar Garden Amusement Company underwent a decided change in management at the monthly meeting of the Board of Directors Tuesday, January 14. Turned T. Lewis, of the Lewis Real Estate Company, was elected president to succeed J. A. Jannopoulo, A. A. Busch became vice president, succeeding Mr. Lewis; Louis E. Dennig succeeded G. W. Baumhoff as sec-retary and treasurer, and J. A. Jannopoulo became manager. In the Board of Directors Doctor A. V. L. Brokaw succeeded G. W. Baumhoff.

Last season Mr. Jannopoulo was both president and manager of the Delmar Garden Amusement Company.

In the direct management of the company many changes are anticipated. The exact nature of the amusements that will be furnished the patrons of Delmar Garden mature of the amusements that will be furnished the patrons of Delmar Garden is undecided. There is talk of the garden being given over to vaudeville instead of light opera the coming season, but as yet the matter has not been definitely decided. At the February meeting of the Board of Directors this will be settled.

Light opera proved successful at Delmar Garden last season and as there was only one opera company in St. Louis after Uhrig's Cave closed, scale sold well for Directors, however, are divided and many favor vaudeville instead of light opera. Cherles Southwell, who had the amusement right last year has not been heard from as yet, and the board is anxiously awaiting the receipt of his terms.

Mr. Lewis, when asked if there was any underlying reason why Mr. Jannapoulo had been reduced from president to manager, said: "I object to discussing the reason of the removal of Mr. Jannapoulo still has the entire management of the amusement rights, though everything must be referred to me."

Ansong teatures spoken of for next year is Gilmore's band. Representatives of this famous old band have been in conference with Mr. Lewis and it is probable that they will give daily concerts at the garden during the season.

SWINGLEY FOR TRIAL BOARD.

Mayor Wells Withholds Comment on Discharge of Barry and Fath Until All the Facts Are Before Him.

"The City Council in all probability will order an investigation of the Fire Department, the effectiveness of its past service, and the reasons for the recent heavy fire losses in St. Louis," said Councilman George D. Markham, who is also an insurance agent, yesterday.

"As I may be asked to serve on the Investigating Committee," said Mr. Mark-ham, "I do not like to discuss existing conditions further. We all know that something must be done at once." Several other Councilmen already have expressed themselves as favoring the proposed investiga-

President Snow of the St. Louis Fire Prevention Bureau said that he knew nothing of any individual in the Fire Department from the Chief down. He said that the Executive Committee had at heart only the good of the service in calling upon Chief Swingley to take steps calculated to attain better results.

Mayor Wells declines to make any statement concerning any phase of the situation. "I shall say nothing," he said, "until i shall have thought over all the details."

Patrick Shea, Chief Swingley's driver, is acting, temporarily, as Assistant Chief in place of Mr. Barry.

Chief Swingley's friends hay that Mr. Barry's friends were encouraging insubordination by circulating a petition for the appointment, in a year, of Mr. Barry as Chief. Whether Mr. Barry sanctioned the course of his friends is a question that will develop if the Mayor conducts an investigation. As a fireman the assistant has an exceptionally good record.

NEWS OF THE CITY CHURCHES.

St. Charles District May Be Annexed to St. Louis Conference.

The Reverend Doctor W. F. McMurry. Presiding Elder of the St. Louis District. M E. Church, South, will meet with the curators of the St. Charles College and curators of the St. Charles College and representatives of the churches of the St. Charles District to-day for the purpose of considering the advisability of annexing said district to the St. Louis Conference. From the first it has been appart of the Missouri Conference, but this conference has memorialized the General Conference to redistrict as above indicated. Doctor McMurry stated yesterday that the general sentiment of the St. Louis Conference was favorable to such annexation, provided the entire St. Charles District came in he said also that everything pointed favorably to such a course. to such a course.

The First Baptist Church, colored, Four-teenth street and Clark avenue, is holding a fair for the purpose of raising the funds necessary to pay off a note of $500, which will be due February 7. Fire Department may have opportunity for defense whenever charges or compiaints of any kind may be entered against them.

Neither Mr. Barry nor Mr. Fath, the two Assistant Chiets who were deposed by the Chief, was obiged to sever his connection with the service, Mr. Swingley says, on account of criticisms made by insurance agents and the St. Louis Firs Prevention Bureau in regard to the service at several big downtown fires.

"Neither of the two assistants," the Chief said, "went to any of the fires in question, and neither was, by duty, obliged to go to them. Mr. Fath left the service because ill health incapacitated him for work. Mr. Barry was discharged for several causes similar in principle to the one sat forth in my interview in Tuesday's Republic.

"Politics has played no part in the affairs of the Fire Department, and I hope politics never will interfere with its operations. Mr. Barry's case is now before Mayor Wells, and I am willing to abide by the Mayor's decision. If the Mayor thinks the assistant should be reinstated, I shall reinstate him. nstate him. Suggests Nonpartisan Trial Board.

"Certainly men who have served many years in the department should be afforded occasion, before being retired, to make defense. For this reason I am in favor of the establishment of a nonpartisan trial board. Such a body would relieve the Chief of many difficulties and would save him the necessity of doing unpleasant duties, for it is not agreeable to any one to have to retire veteran firemen.

"It is not true that I intend to discharge any other officials. At present I know of no reason which should prompt me to ask for any more resignations. What I demand is discipline and faithful performance of duty. If any member of the Fire Department should prove cerelict, I shall most surely retire him."

Stati-tics, H. M. Hosson stated resterday, form the bass for criticisms made lately by fire insurance agents. "The fire insurance companies do not couplain of the knd of men who compose the St. Louis Fire Department, but they say that it is a fact that it has proved less efficient than similar organizations in other cities. More than fitty c mranes have withdrawn. Others will qift St. Louis soon. Rates will be raised. They are content about busines: results not about men. The most of the ag nts here know none of the men in the Fire Department. We do know the general results.

Speaks Word for the Chief.

"As to Chief Swingley. I believe he will remain at the head of the department. I don't know of any other ten men in the service, who rol'd tosether, wou'd be his equal, though he may have a superior. I believe that all those whom he considers inefficient will have to get out.

"The trouble in St. Louis is that the department does not set to the bottom of the fire quick enough. Any fire can be stopped with a Babook at its inception. Four minutes later all St. Louis can't stop it. I don't know whether there should be more engine companies, if they were to be like the present ones they would produce better results, nothing was said or implied to the effect that man were or were not to be discharged."

At the offices of F.

tics, from their standpoint, has nothing to do with the matter.

The Pulpit Committee of Immanuel Baptist Church held an executive meeting yesterday afternoon at the Mercantile Culb, at which the question of a successor to the Reverend C. H. Murray was discussed. It could not be ascertained definitely as to the decision reached, but it is known that the name of the Reverend Doctor A. J. Barton of Little Rock, Ark., was favorably before the committee. Doctor Barton is secretary of the Baptist Mission Board of Arkansas, and is well known in this city. He filled the pulpit of the Immanuel Church last Sunday, and, it is said, made a very favorable impression. The Reverend Mr. Murray will preach his farewell discourse next Sunday morning. It is not known what his future plans are.

The new officers of the St. Louis Superintendents' Union are W. E. Matthews, president; George W. Hall, vice president; A. H. Broadhead, secretary, and A. H. Robbins 'reasurer.

dore Braemer's Connection With J. & F. Scroth Company at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Jan. 22.-Reports were published here to-day of an alleged shortage in the books of Theodore Braemer, who resigned last Sunday as secretary and treasurer of the J. & F. Scroth Packing Company of this city.

The story as first published alleged a shortage of from $160,000 to $400,000, extending over a period of twenty years, and stated that Mr. Braemer had turned over all of his property and chattels in trust pending an examination of the books by experts. Braemer denied that there was any defaication, but admitted that he had turned $72,000 in personal property over to Harlan Cleveland, his attorney, and Joseph W. O'Hara, attorney for the J. & F. Scroth company. While Braemer talked freely about the case, the Scroths refused to say anything and the attorneys were also reticent.

Braemer is 45 years old and has been with the Scroths twenty-seven years, most of the time receiving $25 per week as book-keeper and in recent years twice that amount as secretary and treasurer. The firm did a business of about $1,000,000 a year, which was collected by Braemer.

When John Scroth died over a year ago Licutenant Governor Carl Nippert became the attorney of his heirs, who instituted an investigation of the company, which finally culminated in a meeting of all interested parties last Sunday, at which Braemer resigned and from which the sensational report of to-day emanated.

Lieutenant Governor Nippert, attorney for the heirs of John Schroth, is engaged with the Legislature at Columbus, while Harlan Cleveland, attorney for Braemer, and John W. The accountants insist that they cannot complete their work for two or three weeks, and counsel say that no reliable statement can be made until that time.

Braemer Highly Regarded.

Braemer has been regarded as a man of the highest business and social standing. He owns one of the finest readences in the city, and it is furnished with all that art could supply. The attorneys and other interested parties will give no assurance that the report of the experts on the examination of the books will be made public when completed as they state that every possible difference has already been adjusted satisfactorily by the property that Braemer has turned over in trust. All the interested parties state that they expected, after the meeting last Sunday at which Braemer resigned, that all differences would be settled without the matter ever becoming public. Serious Charge Concerning Theo- Efforts to Make Objections to Segregation in General Meet Quick Rebuff-Many Petions Offered.

> Vigorous and prolonged protests, lively verbal encounters and a desperate but unavailing effort to open up the general subject of segregation enlivened the meeting of the Police Board vesterday afternoon when the social evil was again under dis-

A dozen women, including several negroes, all wearing the ribbons of the W. C. T. U., were present to protest against the location of the social evil anywhere. Mrs. Addle M. Johnson and several others who had been enthusiastic in their support of a suggestion to locate the evil west of Vandeventer avenue were the leaders in the unsuccessful effort to speak against the general plan of segregation.

Delegations from the "river parishes," from St. Malachy's Parish and from the South St. Louis Protective Association as-South St. Louis Protective Association as-sembled at the boardroom nearly an hour before the meeting was formally opened. The question of limiting the time of the various speakers was raised as soon as President Hawes ad called the meeting to order, with Commissioners Frye and Blong and Mayor Wells present. It was ruled that no time should be set, but Mr. Hawes said be housed the discussion would not extend he hoped the discussion would not extend beyond three hours.

One of the women, who said she was Mrs. Haynes, arose to object immediately when the district between Thirteenth and Seventeenth streets, and Market and Poplar streets, was announced as under consideration. She said she objected to any location except one, which had been sug-gested, north of Baden, "Let us understand each other right now," said Mr. Hawes. "Protests will be received from persons residing within the districts affected or owning property there. But any such discussion as you seem about to begin will not be in order."

Mrs. Haynes sat down.

Mrs. Haynes sat down.

Miss Mitchell Scores a Point.

Captain A. G. Bromley, who had suggested a district lying east of Fourth street, was the sole objector to the location of the social evil in the district west of Vandeventer avenue, between Delmar and Page boulevards. He began a vociferous harangue when Miss Mitchell, one of the suddence, arose to a point of order. She wanted to know whether Captain Bromley lived in the district. The Captain Bromley lived in the district. The Captain Bromley was ruled out of order. Miss Mitchell smiled triumphantly.

Two districts which were not discussed at the previous open meeting were next announced. They are Tenth to Eighteenth streets, between Franklin and Lucas avenues, and Twelfth to Sixteenth streets, between Spruce and Market streets. To the latter E. J. Heitkamp objected, as he had objected to the first one before the meeting, on the ground that he owns property that would be affected.

Mr. Hawes felt constrained at this stage of the proceedings to ask the audience to refrain from interruptions of any demonstration of approval or disapproval. These, he said, would have no weight with the board. The district between Jefferson avenue and Eighteenth street, from Chouteau avenue to the continuation of Austin street, which had not been praviously discussed in public meeting, raised no objections.

When the district between Twentieth and Twenty-third streets, Clark avenue and Atlantic street was announced there was a attr among the delegates from St. Malachy's Parish. The Reverend Henry Walser of St. Luke's German Evangelical Church, Father Charles Ziegler of St. Malachy's Church the Reverend F. P. Jonson' of Church the Reverend F. P. atir among the delegates from St. Malachy's Parish. The Reverend Henry Walser of St. Luke's German Evangelcal Church, Father Charles Ziegler of St. Malachy's Church, the Reverend F. P. Joanson of First Swedish M. E. Church and J. H. Dawes spoke earnestly in opposition to the proposed location of the evil at that place. Mr. Walser said that the 10,000 women whose names, he understood, were on the police records could not be crowded into the five blocks of ground, which, he said, was all the room available in the district proposed. He feared the district would be extended to Grand avenue.

Judge Dillos Professes Ignorance.
Judge Daniel Dillon entered into a lensthy argument against the right of the Police Board to segregate the social evil. He said that he would bring about a reform by arresting every man and woman found in questionable resorts and sending them to the Workhouse or out of the city. Mr. Hawes, after asking rim several questions, which he professed to be unable to answer, about the status of the social evil and laws regarding it in other cities, said that the Judge's plan had not worked out successfully in practical experience.

The Reverend William A. Brown and Patrick Walsh, who said that he had lived in the district for twenty-eight years and would not be crowded out by disreputable women, closed the argument for St. Malachy's.

in the district for twenty-eight years and would not be crowded out by disreputable women, closed the argument for St. Malachy's.

Those districts lying east of Sixth street, between Market street and Chouteau avenue, were next considered all together. I. W. Mueller, who said that he had lived there for fifty years, asserted that the great number of manufacturing enterprises there made the selection of that district highly undesirable. He said he understood that petitions had been sent to the Police Board requesting that the women be purmitted to remain where they are. Mr. Hawes said that no such petition had been received and that no such petition had been received and that no attention would be paid to it if one should be received. Father J. J. Head of Annunciation Church spoke in behalf of his parish.

Father Aloysius Garthoeffer said that sentiment in the South Side and throughout the river parishes is altogether against the location of the social evil there. He presented resolutions adopted at a mass meeting in Liederkrahz Hill, a letter from Archibishop Khin and another letter from Vicar General Muchlisepen in support of his protest. President A. C. Burgdorf of Waititer College, Attorney E. V. P. Schneiderhahn and Henry Mundt also spoke, the lawyer presenting several petitions.

Mrs. Addie M. Johnson, after several ineffectual efforts, to set the floor, finally aged to present a request that the Police Board nod another meeting to consider ways and means for abolishing the social evil entirely. She was told that this would not be done.

The board will now consider the petitions and remonstrances, but just how soon a decision will be reached. Mr. Hawes said last night, is not at all certain.

Springfield, Ohio, Feb. 21, 1901.

"Having heard that you could procure a sample bottle of Swamp-Root free by mail.

I wrote to Dr. Klimer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle, and it was promptly sent. I was so pleased after trying the sample bottle that I sent to the drug stors and procured a supply. I have used Swamp-Root regularly for some time, and consider it unsurpassed as a remedy for torpid liver, loss of appetite and general derangement of the digestive functions. I think my trouble was due to too close confinement in my business. I can recommend it highly for all liver and kidney complaints. I am not in the habit of indorsing any medicine, but in this case I cannot speak too much in praise of what Swamp-Root has done for me."

MISSISSIPPI RIVER IMPROVEMENT URGED.

St. Louis Merchants' Exchange TO MANDAMUS THE ALDERMEN. Members Filed Arguments With River and Harbor Committee.

Washington, Jan. 22 Messrs, Parsons Whitelaw, Kennett and Ballard, represent ing the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange, to day submifted to the House Committee or Rivers and Harbors a brief argument urging the improvement of the Mississippi

The brief sets forth that the thorough systematic and permanent improvement of the Mississippi River by continuous appropriations is not only a duty, but an obligation resting upon our national Govern-ment toward its own domain; and that, ment toward its own domain; and that, pending such general improvement, it is practicable to secure an adequate depth for successful navigation by the use of dredges; at an expenditure insignificant when compared with the beneficial results that would follow.

Continuing, the brief says:

"No portion of the Mississippi River has received less attention in late years and has suffered such losses therefrom as that between the mouths of the Ohio and the Missouri rivers. The commerce of that section is now greatly depressed and embarrassed by obstacles which can be surmounted. By the use of ample dredging, it would raised by obtaines which can be surmount-ed. By the use of ample dredging, it would not only revive, but increase, beyond any tonnage in the past, which the data your honorable body has at hand would show would fully warrant the appropriations we ask.

"We, therefore, earnestly and urgantly fequest of you the following action in behalf of the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouths of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouth of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouth of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouth of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouth of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouth of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouth of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouth of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouth of the Ohio and the Mississippi River improvement between the mouth of the Mississippi River improvement between the Mississi

"First—That the Secretary of War, on application of the Chief of Engineers, be authorized to draw warrants upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary for maintaining and operating the Government dredges, with the privilege of using on such work any dredges not needed on the channels or harhors to which they were specially assigned. This is merely asking that the dredges be put on the same basis of operation that now applies to the Government snagboats.

"Second—That the sum of $1,000.00 per year for five years be placed at the disposal of the engineering department of the War Department for use in the permanent improvement of the Mississippi River between the Ohio and the Missouri rivers."

Theodore Weber of Kirkwood Desires a Saloon License. Theodore Weber, a Kirkwood saloonkeeper, filed a petition in the Clayton Chronic Court yesterday asking that a writ of mandamus be issued against Mayor William Daly and the Board of Alderman of Eirhwood compelling them to runsw his dramshop license, which expired January 7.

The defendants to the suit, in addition to Mayor Dale, are Dennis Lane, Charles Ricker, G. D. Kendall, Theodore Bopp, Thomas McCullough, Morris Cronin, J. W. Warner and Rudolph Pagenstecker. Weber alleges in his petition that the defundants refused to renew his license, and that he will lose considerable money if they persist in their refusal, as he has already paid for his Government, State and county license.

for his Government, State and county li-cense.

Judge McElhinney issued an alternative writ of mandamus, returnable January i.
Mr. Weber has been at loggerheads with the Kirkwood Aldermen for more than two months. The trouble began when a committee was appointed to investigate his place on Main street. Weber was diseased and filed a suit for damages in the Clay-ton Circuit Court, naming all the members of the board as defendants. The latter filed a demurrer to his petition yesterday.

Long, Rich, Heavy Hair

A great many people want long, heavy hair; but how to get it, that is what puzzles them. Jan 1911 - F ... I maked the &

The fact is, the hair needs a little help now and then. The roots require feeding. When the hair is starved, it stops growing, loses its luster, falls out, turns gray.

Ayer's Hair Vigor is a hairhelp. It feeds the bair. The hair grows, stops falling out, and all the gray hairs are restored to the natural color.
